

Scenario Outremer/Croisades

The Death of the Shepherd

Background

October 1147: A group of stragglers from the German crusading army were being escorted back to the main force by Bernard of Plotzkau and a few of his retainers when they were set upon by Moslem horsemen. Bernard was killed in the ensuing melee, the highest ranking Christian noble to die in the Second Crusade.

Map Layout And Starting Positions

The Christians set up on the map.

The Stragglers begin Wounded.

Moslems enter per special rule (see below) and move first.

Counters

Stragglers (All Wounded)		Christians		Moslems
	Sir Guy		Simon		Sir Balian (standing in for Bernard) Sir Raymond
			Adam Emlyn Roger
						Al Kamil Maarat Raslid
	Blodwin		Ernest		Arnulf Kamal
						Ruzzik Yesugai Arghun
	Ivor Morris Will'm				Nicholas
						Ayub Mongka
					Alric

Special Rule

After Christian set up, the Moslem player draws one card unseen from a standard deck to determine which map edge they will enter from. Spades = Side 1, hearts = 2, clubs = 3, diamonds = 4.

Victory Conditions

Christian win if there are no more than two Moslems alive and unwounded.

Moslems win if they kill eight Christians or six Christians including Balian.

If both conditions are met at the same time the Christians win.
